R.P No.109/2007 in W.P(C) No.12294/2005 (L)

Dated this the 14th day of February, 2007

O R D E R

The learned counsel for the review petitioner is having an apprehension that the statement of accounts supplied by the 3rd respondent, may not include all the required details. It is brought out during the hearing that an application as directed by this Court, in W.P.(C) No.12294/2005, requesting for an one time settlement scheme, had not been so far filed.

2. The learned counsel for the first respondent bank submits that the entire details of the account, including the principal loan amount, the interest that accrued, the amounts so far remitted, the amount that is entitled to be adjusted under the one time settlement scheme and, the balance due to the bank could be supplied to the review petitioner, if he applies for it.

In the above circumstances, I find that the review petition is not bona fide. Therefore, it is dismissed.
